

Small Group Questions

Encounter
Stef Rohler

Engage the Bible

Romans 1:20
Matthew 6:8
Matthew 22:27-38
Psalm 19:1-4

Summary

God invites you to encounter and re-encounter him anytime in his creation! When was the last time you allowed yourself to see him there and what can you learn about him there?

Small Group Questions

- Read Romans 1:20. Have you ever noticed or been in awe of God because of the creation he made? When?
- What are some amazing things in nature that you pass by every day without notice?
- How could you encounter or re-encounter God in nature?
- What do you think it means when Jesus says to love the lord your god with all of your mind?
- Read Psalm 19:1-4. Imagine what David was thinking as he wrote this, perhaps camped under the stars, watching his flocks. What does verse 2 mean to you?
- How has God answered prayers in your life because he revealed answers about science long before you prayed? Think about engineering, technology, medicine, and aspects of modern life for ideas.
- How can you remember to encounter or re-encounter god in the context of our modern lives based on some of your discussion of question 6?