Summary

God made us all to have different spiritual gifts and passions, and we can lean into these to encounter God in everyday moments.

Small Group Questions

- What are your passions? What do you LOVE to do?
- What would your day with no responsibilities look like? What would you choose to do?
- Why do you think God gave you the spiritual gifts that He gave you? How do you think He wants you to use them for others?
- What did God not make you to do well? What are your blind spots? Did God put other people in your life who do have those spiritual gifts that you lack in their top five?
- What opportunities in your daily life can you say yes to by using your spiritual gifts to serve others?
