

The Prodigal's Return - Brian Steenhoek

Icebreaker:

1. What item do you hope will be obsolete in 20 years?
2. If you were famous, what would your stage name be?

Summary:

Jesus tells the parable of the prodigal to help us see and experience God as a passionate, loving Father. What images of God do we distort? And what keeps us from seeing him as the compassionate Father portrayed in the story? Come and explore the parable of the Prodigal Son.

Engage the Bible:

Read Luke 15:11-24. Discuss as a group.

Small Group Questions:

- What stood out to you in today's teaching?
- What are some takeaways from the teaching you plan to apply to your week?
- Do you have any distorted images of God that lead you to places that are less than God's best for you?
