

Ephesians 5:1-2 Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. 2 And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

Ephesians 5:8 for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light 9 (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true)..

Ephesians 5:31-32 “Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.” 32 This mystery is profound, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church.

Icebreaker

What were you taught about offers that were too good to be true? Did what you were taught match what you have experienced in life?

Conversation Starters

1. Share about a time you experienced something extravagant. What was it? What was it like? How do you define extravagance?
2. When is a time that you were forgiven for something you did? What was that like for you?
3. How good are you at forgiving others? What’s one thing you could do to get a little better at forgiving others?
4. What do you experience when you go to church?
5. What do you think the Holy Spirit is like? What is the Holy Spirit’s role? What role does the Holy Spirit play in your life?
6. How does your participation in church impact this?
7. How do you feel about Paul’s instruction to mutually submit to one another in marriage? What’s one way you can do this this week in your home?