

Icebreaker

What superpower would you like to possess and why?

Conversation Starters

1. Dave defined beauty as "the quality in a person or thing that pleurably exalts (lifts up; upgrades) the mind or spirit". When can you think of a time that something beautiful filled you with wonder? What was that?
2. What gets in the way of you seeing what is beautiful in the world? Is this hard for you?
3. What is one discipline or action that you could take to better pay attention to what is beautiful in our world or in our faith?
4. What strikes you as most beautiful about the story of God?
5. Dave said that the Roman cross which was an instrument of torture and death, is now a symbol of love and forgiveness. How could you explain this to someone?
6. Describe a person who used their power most like Jesus. Choosing to invert or turn upside down the way power is often yielded in our world.
7. What most gets in the way of you using power in a gentle, kind and humble way? What situations would you like to change the way you wield power?
